

Shelley Keelor

Shelley Keelor moved from New York City to Florida and has been entertaining audiences Internationally and Regionally as a singer and actress for over a decade. She has done solo performances in more than a dozen countries including Italy and Turkey. She performed with the Istanbul State Symphony in both Istanbul and the famed Aspendos Amphitheater in Antalya, Turkey touring as a soloist in the revue show, Broadway Nights.

She has been a lead performer in production shows such as Songs of Andrew Lloyd Webber, Best of the West End & Broadway and Knights of Rock n' Roll on her tour with P & O Cruises. She also frequents as the guest soloist in the show From London to Broadway with Broadway and West End star John Capes.

Her one-woman show, The Story Goes On ... is currently being performed throughout Florida where she appears as the Headliner or Opener for great acts such as, Mal Z. Lawrence, one of the most acclaimed actors and comedians of our time. Her new hit show, The Real Life of a Yummy Mummy, debuted in St. Petersburg, Florida at American Stage Theatre in 2010.

In addition, Ms. Keelor passionately enjoys the theatrical stage in such shows as Kurt Weill's Berlin to Broadway at Palm Beach Dramaworks in West Palm Beach in which her performance received a Carbonell Award nomination. She was honored to be the featured entertainer for their 10th Anniversary Gala held at The Kravis Center for the Performing Arts in 2010. Other New York and Regional Theatre credits include leading roles in Pump Boys and Dinettes, Cabaret, Kiss Me Kate, Always Patsy Cline, The Music Man, The Fantasticks, Beauty and the Beast, The Will Rogers Follies, and South Pacific, to name a few.

At ease with many genres of music, Ms. Keelor also performs contemporary, jazz and standard music both as a duo act or with a full band.

WILLIAM CLARE ENTERTAINMENT

727-789-4594

williamclare.com