

JIMMY KEYS

Musical Comedy Entertainer

Jimmy's show incorporates music from the 50's to present day as well as popular Broadway pieces, with a sensational Phantom of the Opera climax. His amazing mix of music, comedy and impressions holds his audience spellbound for as long as he performs. His wonderful Willie Nelson and Julio Iglesias rendition of "To All the Girls I Loved Before" is a favorite. Jimmy takes his audience on his own laughter packed musical history tour, from his childhood ("my Mum used to dress me up like Beethoven"), to modern day.
