

The Carole King Tribute

Home Again: a tribute to the music of Carole King

HOMÉ AGAIN leaves no stone unturned, covering the entire repertoire of the multi-award winning singer/songwriter Carole King. Included on the list are songs Carole wrote & recorded on her own as well as songs she wrote that were recorded by other musicians. She made her mark with 'Tapestry' in 1971 but was already a well established songwriter for over a decade starting with her first hit in 1960 "Will You Love Me Tomorrow" recorded by the Shirelles.

Other well-known hits from Carole include "Pleasant Valley Sunday" by The Monkees, "Take Good Care of My Baby" by Bobby Vee, "Up on the Roof" by The Drifters & many more old favorites. We will take you on a musical journey spanning decades of amazing music!

HOMÉ AGAIN, comprised of professional musicians who have been working together for over 30 years, is dedicated to preserving Carole's legacy. The band includes - Deb De Lucca (Carole): Piano & lead vocals, Keith Droz: Drums & vox, Bobby Sproviero: Bass & vox, Rich Weiner: Acoustic & Electric guitar, John McDonough: keyboards & vox, Stantawn Kendrick: Sax & flute.

HOMÉ AGAIN pays tribute to the singer/songwriter while also adding our own musicianship, interpreting her songs with love & respect.

A True Celebration of the Music of Carole King!

williamclare.com - 727-789-4594